Sacramento Valley Charter School Parent Newsletter

Dear Parents,

I hope you are staying safe and managing your time well during the COVID-2019 pandemic. Thank you for attending our virtual awards ceremony to recognize scholars' enthusiasm for the online school. We recognize that it is not easy to adapt to a large-scale disruption in our daily life. Dealing with a flood of problems sometimes becomes nearly impossible. Whenever there were adverse times in history, young men and women held out hopes for the despairing spirits. According to Albert Schweitzer, the winner of 1953 Nobel Peace Prize, "One who gains strength by overcoming obstacles possesses the only strength which can overcome adversity." I congratulate SVCS young scholars for winning recognition for their strengths. Our scholars wasted no time and started online learning immediately after the closure. In this laborious task, our parents' role is crucial and critical. I appreciate their spirit and resilience in partnering with us for a better future. Together we will make a difference. Stay safe!
