Sacramento Valley Charter School Parent Newsletter

Dear Parents,

We appreciate you for attending parent-teacher conferences. Parents' partnership is good for motivating and inspiring your scholar. It shows that the school is important to you. Please monitor their time Online, ask questions about their classroom experience, and check their homework. You will soon get report cards for the first trimester. If you have any questions, please feel free contact me anytime.

The weather has suddenly changed. Mornings are very cold. Please send your kid in a sweater or jacket. Our school uniform color is navy blue. Please make sure there is no logo other than the SVCS logo. If your scholar is not in uniform, the office will call you to bring uniform appropriate attire to school. If you have friends and/or neighbors interested in our school, they can complete a Prospective Student form online. Please visit www.sacvalleycharter.org.

The next trimester is marked by Thanksgiving and Winter Break. It is always helpful when kids maintain their regular study schedule: reading aloud for 30 minutes, writing a daily journal, and researching on a topic related with the subject of their study.

Dr. Amrik Singh, Principal
